Dear Tom:

Enclosed please find a report on NET and Statelines as well as the Kriebler Institute and the Freedom's Challenge tape distribution project. Given the initial success of these two specific projects and the many other initiatives we continue to develop, I am especially encouraged by our prospects for an extremely productive year at the Free Congress Foundation.

As we settle into 1995, I want to make you aware of a minor change we have made at NET. As of April 1, National Empowerment Television will now be referred to as NET-POLITICAL NEWS TALK NETWORK. After careful consideration, this move was made to increase the public's awareness of our purpose. It seems that the name National Empowerment Television often led to some misconceptions about what we do. As we actively pursue new affiliates, we now hope to be more readily identifiable as a public policy organization.

Of course, none of what we are able to accomplish would be possible without the support of organizations like Philip Morris, USA. I am truly grateful for your support and hope you will continue to be satisfied with our efforts.

Sincerely,

Paul M. Weyrich
President
